

The Gulf Cooperation Council

Economic and Trade Overview

The Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) is comprised of Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, and the United Arab Emirates (UAE)

Rising Population of the GCC Member States

GDP based on purchasing power parity per capita in 2011 (US$)

Source: International Monetary Fund Database

Aggregate Trade Balance 2011

The combined trade surplus of the GCC Member States is the highest in the world

All GCC member states currently have a trade surplus

Aggregate Trade Surplus of the GCC Member States in 2011 (US$)

Source: International Monetary Fund Database

Exports / Imports Between the U.S. and the GCC Member States in 2011

U.S. Imports from the GCC Member States 2011 (US$)

Top United States Exports, excluding military sales to the GCC Member States 2011 (US$)

Top United States Imports from the GCC Member States Excluding Mineral Fuels 2011 (US$)

Source: United States Trade Representative

