

AALIM

www.aalimorocco.com or aalimorocco@yahoo.com

Fall and Spring Semesters or Academic Year

Multi-course à la carte menu

1

Study intensive Arabic at your level, with a concentration on your area of interest: literature, media, MSA, Moroccan dialect, politics, or business.

2

Plunge into content courses in Arabic, a hybrid of Arabic and English, English only, or French. Choices include history, literature, geopolitics and more.

Strengthen your Arabic.
Live with a Moroccan family.
Immerse yourself in the culture.

AALIM is pleased to offer a wide range of courses at its two centers in the Old City of Meknes, Morocco, as well as in conjunction with its local partner the University of Moulay Ismail, which has a student enrollment of over 20,000. Fall and spring semesters run 13 weeks each, and have the equivalent contact hours to an American university semester. Choose your courses from our list of intensive Arabic language courses plus content courses: all levels of MSA and Moroccan Arabic (CMA), Media Arabic, as well as Middle East Studies in English, Arabic, hybrid (English and Arabic) or French.

Engage in a new culture.
Become a global citizen.
Explore different traditions.
Make new friends.
Travel. Feast.

Experience a new perspective

Experience the Moroccan culture from the inside. Live with a Moroccan host family, participate in their daily life, eat Moroccan food—and learn to cook it too!

In addition to a strong academic program, you will have a chance to interact with Moroccans daily.

You may choose to travel on your own or with other students on weekends, to volunteer in a local organization, or your host family may invite you to family celebrations and on family outings.

largest Medina in North Africa. Be entertained by monkeys in the cedar forests of Azrou. Explore the bustling modern capital of Rabat. Visit the waterfalls in Safrou. Travel further afield to see the old international city of Tangier, the fairytale blue city of Chefchaouen, trek the Sahara desert, bargain in Marrakech or ...

Explore Meknes, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Visit Roman ruins. Wander the mysterious alleys of Fez, the

Arabic Courses:

- All levels of Modern Standard Arabic (MSA) including Media Arabic
- All levels of Moroccan dialect (CMA), known as Darija

Content Courses:

- Overview of Middle East and North African Countries
- Management Theory and the Moroccan Reality
- Arab Authors in Translation
- Women and Gender in North Africa and the Middle East
- Economics courses (Islamic banking, Moroccan economy, the Moroccan economy, and others)

Host family accommodations:

Host families are carefully selected; students are placed two per family if possible, and placements are gender specific

Visa:

No visa is necessary for Americans in our semester program. If you do not travel with an American passport, contact us.

Cost:

$9850 per semester, payable one month prior to start date. .
Dates mid-Sept. to mid-Dec., and mid-Jan. to mid-April.

Getting your credits:

Students are urged to discuss their plans with their home university study abroad office and arrange credit transfer ahead of time.

What's included:

Tuition, cultural program, 2 excursions, host family accommodations with 2 meals a day, orientation, security, emergency hotline number, official transcript, wi-fi at center. Regarding things not on this list, please contact us.

Program details

Custom programs available for groups

See the website for more details and this year's dates, or email your questions:

www.aalimorocco.com

aalimorocco@yahoo.com

